Read with Daffodil Princesses at Pierce County Libraries

PIERCE COUNTY, Washington –The Daffodil Princesses will visit several Pierce County Library System locations this spring to read with children. Members of the Daffodil Festival’s Royal Court will share story time, help craft crowns and be available for photos with children ages 3-6.

“We are thrilled to welcome these young scholars and community ambassadors to read with children in our libraries through this long-standing literacy partnership,” said Pierce County Library Executive Director Gretchen Caserotti. “For young kids, spending time with real princesses, such as the ones they’ve only heard about in fairytales, is a real treat.”
