Lovely Letter in the Mail

Sing to: If You're Happy and You Know It

Credit: Jen in the Library – jeninthelibrary.com/tag/community-helpers/

Oh, I got a lovely letter in the mail (clap, clap)

Oh, I got a lovely letter in the mail (clap, clap)

Getting mail is so much fun

Let's see who sent this one

Oh, this lovely little letter in the mail (clap, clap)

Write some funny letters that animals might write and put each letter in an envelope. Open up each envelope and read what's inside. See if children can guess which animal sent the message. You can hide these letters around your home and turn it into a Scavenger hunt or invite your child to create their own letters from animal friends. Here are a few ideas:

Dear Friend,
If you have any cheese, can you please leave it by my hole? Thank you.
Love, Mouse

Dear Friend,
Maybe we can play fetch soon?
Love, Dog

Dear Friend,
Let's have a fish lunch soon!
Love, Cat

What is My Job? – a guessing game song

Sing to the tune “Are You Sleeping?”

What is my job?

What is my job?

Can you guess?

Can you guess?

I help people get well!

I help people get well!

Who am I?

Who am I? (a DOCTOR)

Repeat using other verses like...

I deliver letters (MAIL CARRIER)

I can teach you new things (TEACHER)

I make tasty meals for you (CHEF)

I help if you get lost (POLICE OFFICER)

Show a picture of each community worker/helper after the children guess OR just sing the song and say the answer!

Rhyme - This Helper

Count on your fingers as you say the rhyme...

This helper builds our houses.

This helper brings our mail.

This helper teaches the children.

And this one has groceries to sell.

And this little helper, yes, it's me

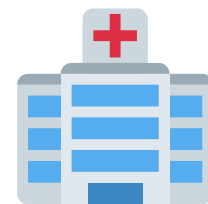

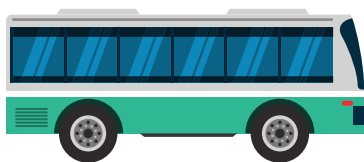

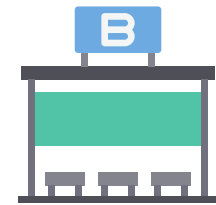

When I grow up,

Which will I be?
