Scheduled closure for Steilacoom Pierce County Library Aug. 13-14

PIERCE COUNTY, Washington – The Steilacoom Pierce County Library will be closed Thursday, Aug. 13 and Friday, Aug. 14, due to a scheduled Town of Steilacoom power outage.

During the closure, the book drop will remain open for returns and holds on library materials will be extended.

The Town of Steilacoom Community Center, located at 2301 Worthington St., will remain open and operating on generator power to provide internet, ability to charge cell phones/electronics, and access to available rooms to meet community needs.

For library services during the closure, the public is encouraged to visit a nearby Pierce County Library location.

The nationally acclaimed Pierce County Library System serves 686,500 people throughout Pierce County with 19 libraries and online services. The system is the fourth largest in the state and property taxes are the main funding source. People may choose from more than one million books, e-books, audiobooks, movies and other materials. Through the Library's strategic plan, the Pierce County Library strives to empower the people of Pierce County by advancing all forms of literacy, championing access to information, creating inclusive and inspired spaces, and enriching lives. People make approximately one million visits to Pierce County Libraries each year. The Library provides services and programs directly to people in adult care facilities, people who are homebound, and to children in childcare centers and schools. Pierce County Libraries are located at Anderson Island, Bonney Lake, Buckley, DuPont, Eatonville, Fife, Gig Harbor, Graham, Key Center, Lakewood, Milton/Edgewood, Orting, Parkland/Spanaway, South Hill, Steilacoom, Summit, Sumner, Tillicum and University Place. Pierce County Library is an independent municipal corporation and operates as a junior taxing district.
